NEW YORK.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK, July 25.

It is reported that Miss H. Grinnell is about to retain the Commissioner of New York, on account of ill health and the removal of her family.

It is generally understood that the Commissioners will not be removed.

The election of the Commissioners has been stated for want of publication.

[Charles Foster of Mary Johnson were married yesterday in a wedding ceremony with much display.]

Appointment of a Judge—Incorporations—The Supreme State Agent, &c.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 24.

The Governor has appointed Judge of Wabash, vice Thomas, deceased.

INDIANA.

Ex-Governor Wright, of Indiana, arrived from Paris this week, and is at the Sherman House. He looks well and robust, and is delighted to be back in his old Fresh Water. Although he has been absent from the country for two years, he has not lost the social spirit that prevailed before the war. He is not a politician, and has no political aspirations.

MR. BROWN.

Mr. Brown declined his invitation to visit Europe in accordance with the request of the citizens of Baltimore.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

THE GRAND CHASTE and scenic embellishments has arrived, and the first performances will be given on the corner of Randolph and Halsted streets, at 8 o'clock this evening. The manager has spared no pains in the scenic departments in combination of the verbatim of the company, and the appointments of the stage are magnificent specimens in the country, and, for the first time, the Chicago public will have an opportunity of witnessing, without leaving home, how traveling companies move their vast and complicated machinery.

MR. W. WEBER, a GERMANIAN connected with the Chicago Conservatory of Music, and formerly with the Dearborn Seminary, arrived in this city on the 12th inst. He has been engaged to teach the German language in the Female High School, where he was before employed. Ladies desirous of learning the German language, and taught by a native, can address Mr. Weber at the Conservatory of Music, corner of Wabash-av. and Jackson-st. Ladies desirous of learning to make a display at a fashionable party, can also address Mr. Weber, who is the latest dance of the regimes at the African Church, and the latest dance of the regimes at the African Church, and the latest dance of the regimes at the African Church.

HARRY HARPER, a very respectable-looking young man, about 20 years of age, was charged with stealing a watch, the property of Henry Hoffman, from the latter's residence last night. It appears that Harper was left in charge of the house, and while Hoffman was absent he entered the room where the watch was, and, taking it, left the house. Hoffman, on his return, found it out, and, after running up a bill of $10, discovered that Harper had pawned the watch for $3. Harper was arrested
